11 January 1944

Dear Mrs Keynes,

It was extremely kind of you to think of sending me the memoir you have written of my very dear friend Leonard Darwin. He was surely the kindest and wisest man I ever knew, and it must please you to know how vividly your little book brought back his manner and memory. It is a possession that I very much value.

Yours sincerely,