March 11, 1940

Dear Koahal,

Thanks for your interesting letter. I am very glad you are taking up examples such as Ellerton's, where inefficient methods of estimation are set out as though they constituted an ideal standard procedure. I should be glad to have, if you cared to write one, a short note for the Annals setting out the results of the comparisons you have made.

Yours sincerely,