16th April, 1957.

Dear Moran,

Thanks for sending me your paper on "Random processes in genetics". I do not, as a matter of fact, think that any very burning questions arise in this connection, and that Sewall Wright has greatly exaggerated not, of course, the existence of random processes, but their evolutionary significance.

Yours sincerely,