7th November, 1956.

My dear Keith,

I was thinking that if I were for a time associated with you at Newcastle I should like at some time to make a present of a memento to your departmental library. Messrs Dawson, of Macklin Street, London W.C.2, have sent me the book, after repairing the binding, on approval, and I am having it sent to you so that you can see whether it fits the case, i.e. I would only want to give it if (a) it would not otherwise be easily accessible to your students, (b) if you think it would be of some educational interest to have it accessible, and (c) if you would yourself like it as a memento of our association.

Anyway, have a look at it and see if you are attracted.

Sincerely yours,