Dear Ruth,

Yes, we certainly must have a session on standardising a competent method of presenting simple family data. I know we worked out something fairly good and Rob seems to have dug it out and done all the goings, but it probably needs looking at from all points of view, including how it can be exhibited.

Shall I see you on the 16th?

Sincerely yours,

10th March, 1951.