

11th March, 1958.

Dear Professor von Verschuer,

I have to thank you for the valuable data which has safely arrived, and which I am beginning to study.

In case I have overlooked it, perhaps you will let me know whether you have enclosed with the other material any classified summary of the whole body of data. I shall hope to write later after analysing this important material.

Sincerely yours,