

18th October, 1955.

My dear Geof.,

Thanks for sending me the typescript of your paper for Biometrika. I shall hand it round the Department to see what some of the people here think of your rather elegant approach, if they can struggle through the thorn bushes that you have planted all around it! I am glad the various approaches seem to agree asymptotically.

Sincerely yours,