

4 August 1932.

Norman Wyld, Esq.,
The New Inn,
Lechlade,
Glos.

Dear Mr. Wyld:

I have only just seen your letter of 28 July, on returning from Scotland. I shall be going to the States next week, so doubt if I can do anything to help you with Stamp. I think I had expressed myself fairly clearly!

Yours sincerely,