TAXATION ON ENTERTAINMENTS

Amusements pay the same taxation as any other trade or industry.

And in addition they have to pay TWENTY PER CENT. of their gross takings.

Entertainments running at a loss have to pay twenty per cent. of their gross takings.

Is it Fair? IS IT JUST? Is it British?

WHY NOT THE TOTAL ABOLITION OF THE ENTERTAINMENT TAX?

The Chancellor of the Exchequer would not lose because those entertainments which showed a profit would still be subject to Tax under Income Tax, and entertainments which made a loss would pay no Tax, but would be employing labour.
