Dear Kenen,

What a continued pleasure you give me! The chance to share ideas, discuss the war effort, and reflect on the future is a delight. Iسور����������������������������������������������hton't know how to put it, but it's like writing letters to myself. A Christmas card, a letter from home, a picture of old times - these things bring a smile and a sense of home.

I find it hard to believe that the war is almost over. The world is in a state of flux, and I can't help but feel a sense of uncertainty. Still, there's hope. The future is uncertain, but we must move forward.

Best, [Handwritten signature]
