

arrived at 59 2 p.m.
(83) and (84)

Series I (pp 38-41)

Stories 3-4

Tale n.f.a.

The Histories of Aunaria of (1) Tamoia and (2) Banaba

Unattributed

1. Aunaria was a Tamoian. He left there for Bera where he dropped the rope of the lower end of his lateen yard: it was called Taebaba. He then travelled west and dropped the tip of the sail at the lower end of his yard: it was called Katabanga. He continued west and his canoe capsized: he called this Banaba. Later on, he wed Mei T...

2. Aunaria was a Banaban and husband of Mei Tituabine of Bairiki in Tarawa. Their descendants were:

Tetaro m. Moia

Bakananiku m. Tenonimi

Ten Tetan of Tabiang, Tarawa m. Bineneia

Bakananiku II,

who sailed from Tabiteuea to Outoa to fetch the dead from the canoe Timanikarawa which had a complement of 300 souls. He took them back and buried them at Temaunga. Shortly after this he

m. Mei Kakai, the Virgin

Moia II m. Teitima of the kainga Baraman, Outoa.

Teiantoa,

who sailed to Bera and made a landfall at Birimo in the middle of the island where he

m. Katanooa

Moia III m. Tenamweai of the kainga Kabaska, Nikunau

Teiantoa (see) m. Teotiai of the kainga Nikupengeenge

Katia m. Mio of the kainga Atabou

Mouia (sic) m. Tereue of Aoniman of the kainga Tatokinuwae

Teauoki of Tarawa (sic) m. Kaetiati of the kainga
Tekarania at Taboiaki

Tearei m. Karawa

Iuta